encapsulate a product's appeal or the mission of a firm that makes it catchy, which when used consistently over a long period, becomes an important component of its identification or image. They are also called catch lines, strap line, or tag line, like 'Neighbours envy, Owner's pride .

- Awareness slogans are written to create awareness among the general public. It is done for a social cause. For example, 'No Holiday for Safety.'

Tips for writing an effective slogan

Highlight a key benefit. The point of a slogan is to differentiate a product or brand from that of its competitors, while also underscoring the company's general mission.

1. Explain the company's commitment.
2. Be consistent.
3. Keep it short and simple.
4. Give them a rhythm, rhyme and ring.
5. Stay honest.
6. Make it timeless.
7. Be unique and different.

While writing slogans to create awareness among the public

- Explain the need for the change.
- Make it sensible and easy to understand.
- Keep in mind the target audience and use catchy phrases to suit the audience.

Look at the pictures given below, and write slogans to advertise the products. Suggest your own brand name for each of the products.

Write slogans to create awareness of the following topics using the tips given above.

- Junk food
- Labour Day
- Save Water
- Yoga
- Blood Donation

PARAGRAPH WRITING

In order to write a good paragraph, students should understand four fundamentals. Paragraphs are made up of sentences but not random sentences. There should be a central topic around which the other sentences are organised in a coherent manner. A good paragraph should focus on one idea. A coherently written paragraph takes its readers on a clear path.

A good paragraph usually consists of three parts, the topic sentence, supporting sentences, and a concluding sentence.

12th General_English_Unit_5_A_Prose.indd 160 07-12-2021 18:13:07