"Look East Policy" of India

Look East Policy of India was launched by the former Prime Minister P.V. Narasimha Rao in 1991. The main focus of this policy was to shift the country's trading focus from the west and neighbours to the booming South East Asian countries. The NDA government in the centre upgraded this policy as the "Act East Policy" at the East Asia Summit held in Myanmar in November 2014.

What is Neighbourhood first policy?

- It is part of India's foreign policy that actively focuses on improving ties with India's immediate neighbours which is being termed as Neighbourhood first policy in the media.
- It was started well by inviting all heads of state/heads of government of South Asian countries during the inauguration of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's first term and later held bilateral talks with all of them individually which was dubbed as a mini SAARC summit.
- Prime Minister made his first foreign visit to Bhutan in his first term.
