11.03 Factors influencing Selection Process

Factors influencing employee selection process are listed below

1. Nature of Post

The process of selection of employee varies according to type of personnel to be recruited. For instance, selection process of probationary officer of a bank differs from that of selection of officer for Indian Police Service.

2. Number of Candidates

Selection process depends on the response of candidates to the advertisement inviting applications for the post. For instance, for clerical and other physical jobs, more candidate tend to apply. Hence short listing needs to be done. The selection process would be longer if the number of applicants is lesser and consequently selection process becomes shorter.

3. Selection Policy

The selection policy and selection process are inter-related. For example some organizations put in place tougher selection process involving several steps to identify the best fit while certain other organizations just conduct straight interview and thus cutting short the selection procedure.

4. Cost factor / Budget

The longer selection process entails higher cost. Hence, organizations which cannot afford to spend a larger resource tend to shorten selection process while organizations with sound financial condition can afford to adopt lengthier selection process.

5. Level of Educational Qualification and Experience and Exposure

The process of selection depends on the experience and educational qualification, and exposure required for the post. For example for selection of finance officer, treasurer, legal adviser, designer, architecture, CEOs, scientist, chairman etc. selection process is shorter as only few candidates compete with higher educational qualification, and credentials.

11.04 Importance of Selection

1. Good Talent

Proper selection system enables the organization to appoint talented persons for various activities and thereby leading to improved productivity and profitability of the organisation.

2. Better Efficiency

Selection of right person to the right job is sure to produce better quality of work and may facilitate faster achievement of objectives. This will help in greater measure to tone up the overall efficiency of organisation.

3. Reduced Cost of Training and Development

Better selection of candidates definitely reduces the cost of training because qualified personnel have better grasping power. If they select suitable candidates for suitable job, they can easily understand the techniques of the work better in quick time. Besides, the organization can develop different training programmes for different persons on the basis of their individual differences, thus reducing the time and cost of training considerably.

4. Reduced Turnover

Proper selection of candidates contributes to low labour turnover. This will inturn help the organisation to minimize recruitment cost.

5. Job Motivation

If the right person is selected for the right job, it tends to motivate the person to work
