

12.03 (I) On the Job Training

On the job training refers to the training which is given to the employee at the work place by his immediate supervisor. In an other words the employee learns the job in the actual work environment. It is based on the principle of "Learning by Doing and Learning While Earning". On the job training is suitable for imparting skills that can be learnt in a relatively short period of time. The following are the on the job training methods.

i) Coaching Method

In the coaching method of training, the superior teaches or guides the new employee about the knowledge and skills relevant to a given job. In this method superior plays the role of coach or guide and an instructor. Under this method the superior should point out mistakes/lapses committed by the new worker and also advise the remedial measures, to trainees. The trainees can clear their doubts then and there.
