(v) E-Market Vs Traditional Market

E-Marketing	Traditional Marketing
It is very economical and faster way to promote the products.	It is very expensive and takes more time to promote product.
It is quiet easier for promoting product globally in the short time.	It is very expensive and time consuming to promote product/ service under traditional marketing.
E-Business enterprises can expand their operation with minimum manpower.	It needs more man power.
In this marketing product can be sold or bought 24 x 7, round the year with minimum manpower	That is not possible in traditional marketing.

15.03 E-Tailing

E-tailing or electronic retailing refers to selling of goods and services through a shopping website (internet) or through virtual store to the ultimate consumer. Just as a physical store displays its products in windows and attracts the customer towards it, the shopping website displays the images of the products and highlights features and benefits along with attractive offers and lures the customer to buy the product. The customer buys the product by paying through credit card or other methods mentioned at the shopping website. The customer receives the product at their preferred address through courier service. E-tailing is a business to consumer (B2C) transaction model. E-tailing is also called online retailing

15.04 Green Marketing

Green marketing implies marketing environmentally friendly products. Green marketing involves developing and promoting products and services which satisfy customers' wants and needs for quality, performance, affordable pricing and convenience – all without causing a detrimental impact on the environment. It refers to holistic marketing concept with growing awareness about the implications of global warming, non-biodegradable solid waste, harmful impact of pollutants etc. Green marketing is also known as environmental marketing, ecological marketing eco-friendly marketing and sustainable marketing. Consumers are beginning to recognize that competition in the market place should not be among companies harming the environment but among those making to save it
