15.11 Ambush Marketing

Ambush marketing technique is a new technique whereby a particular advertiser seeks to connect his product to the event in the mind of potential customer without paying sponsoring expenses to the event. In other words it is a method of building brands in covert ways. For example X has sponsored a football event to promote his brand. Every time camera zooms on reference, a group of people sitting on the bench wearing 'Y' company brand name imposed shirt comes into focuses. In this case 'Y' company promote its brand at X's companies expenses. Bigger companies engage in ambush marketing tactics to undermine official event sponsors.

15.12 Guerrilla Marketing

The concept of Guerrilla Marketing was invented as an unconventional system of promotions that relies on time, energy and imagination rather than a big marketing budget. Guerrilla marketing represents an advertisement strategy to promote products/ services on streets or other public places with monkey like shopping malls, parks beach etc., Consumers/ customers are taken by surprise to make a big impression about the brand which in turn creates buzz about the brand on shirts it create a memorable experience in the mind of target audience which triggers good responses to sales. It is suited to small companies which cannot set apart big advertisement budget.

15.13 Multilevel Marketing

Multilevel Marketing is the marketing strategy wherein the direct sales companies encourage its existing distributors to recruit new distributors to facilitate the sale of goods and services. The distributor is compensated not only for the sales generated by him but also gets a percentage on sales revenue of the other distributor he recruits, thus; a multilevel marketing is a type of direct selling wherein the distributor sells the product via relationship referrals and word-of-mouth marketing. The salespersons or distributor not only sell the products but also encourage others to join the company. The recruits are called as the participant's "Downline" or distributor's "Downline". Example, Tupperware, and Amway are the direct sales companies that use the multilevel marketing. The multilevel marketing is also called as a network marketing, referral marketing or pyramid selling. For instance 'A' sells to 'B' a product. In these sales 'A' gets commission on sale to 'B' who in turn sells to 'C', D, and E. A gets certain percentage commission on B's sales to C,D, and E.
