DEGREES OF COMPARISON-TRANSFORMATION

You have already learnt Degrees of Comparison in earlier classes and are therefore familiar with this concept of grammar. Now, recall the rules and guidelines related to this topic and try to complete the task given below.

We use the positive degree of an adjective when we do not intend to make any comparison. We use the comparative degree, when we compare two objects or two people. We use the superlative degree when more than two objects or two people are compared. Adverbs, too, have degrees of comparison.

Points to keep in mind

- A great many adjectives and a few adverbs form their comparatives and superlatives by adding '–er and –est' respectively. [e.g. short – shorter – shortest]
- A few adjectives and many adverbs take 'more and most' to form their comparatives and superlatives. [e.g. wonderful – more wonderful – most wonderful]
- Some adjectives and adverbs take either the former or the latter. [e.g.
