Education, Media and Employment
Articles 14-17	❖ Right to establish educational systems and access to culturally sensitive education ❖ Right to accurate reflection of indigenous cultures in education ❖ Right to create media in their own language and access to non-indigenous media ❖ Right to employment
Participation and Development
Articles 18-24	❖ Right to participation in decision making ❖ Right of free, prior and informed consent for laws and policies ❖ Right to their own political, economic and social system, subsistence and development ❖ Right to economic and social well-being ❖ Right against violence and discrimination of indigenous elders, women, youth, children and persons with disabilities ❖ Right to set priorities and strategies for development ❖ Right to health
Land and Resources
Articles 25-32	❖ Right to spiritual relationship with traditional land and resources ❖ Right to own, use, develop and control traditional land and resources ❖ Right to indigenous laws and traditions on land and resources ❖ Right to get back or to be compensated against the land acquisitions without their free, prior and informed consent ❖ Right against militarization on indigenous land without their free, prior and informed consent ❖ Right to cultural and intellectual property ❖ Right to decide on land and resource development
Self-Government and Indigenous Laws
Articles 33-37	❖ Right to identity, membership and citizenship ❖ Right to distinctive institutional structures and customs ❖ Right to individual responsibilities ❖ Right to maintain and develop contacts, relations and cooperation ❖ Right to recognition, observance and enforcement of treaties and agreements

12th_Political Science_Unit_12.indd 292 07/12/2022 13:26:39