c. National Market: a.Certain type of commodities has demand throughout the country. Hence it is called as a national market. Today the goods from one corner can reach another corner with ease as the communication and transportation facilities are developed well in India. This creates national markets for almost all the products.

d. International Market or World Market: World or international market is one where the buyers and sellers of goods are from different countries i.e., involvement of buyers and sellers beyond the boundaries of a nation.

II. On the Basis of Commodities/Goods

a. Commodity Market:

A commodity market is a place where produced goods or consumption goods are bought and sold. Commodity markets are sub-divided into:

i. Produce Exchange Market: It is an organised market where commodities or agricultural produce are bought and sold on wholesale basis. Generally it deals with a single commodity. It is regulated and controlled by certain rules. e.g. Wheat Exchange Market of Hapur, the Cotton Exchange Market of Bombay etc.

ii. Manufactured Goods Market: This market deals with manufactured goods. e.g., Leather goods, Manufactured machinery etc. The Leather Exchange Market at Kanpur is an example of the same.

iii. Bullion Market: This type of market deals with the purchase or sale of gold and silver. Bullion markets of Mumbai, Kolkata, Kanpur etc., are examples of such markets.

b. Capital Markets:

New or going concerns need finance at every stage. Their financial needs are met by capital markets. They are of three types:

i. Money Market: It is a type of market where short term seurities are exchanged. It provides short term and very short term finance to industries, banks, governments agencies and financial intermediates.
